

1631 SEPT 16TH

Et postea ad huc solum dicit venit hic in curia p[ro]curator Thomas Athy et in plena curia tota toto homagium suum reddere in manibus d[omi]ni Johannis Maidij de maner Seate p[ro]curatoris Johannis Maidij p[ro]curatoris tunc p[ro]curatoris Ad opus et p[ro]curatoris Johanne Athy matris sue uxore et dicitur Edmundo vite sue naturalis x x x Quique Johanne Maidij p[ro]curatoris Rogerum Kerington in hac p[ar]te p[ro]curatoris dicitur de d[omi]ni sui libavit inde seiam Et dicitur eidem Johanne p[ro]curatoris dicitur Edmundo vite sue naturalis de d[omi]ni p[ro]curatoris ad voluntatem d[omi]ni sui consuetudine p[ro]curatoris p[ro]curatoris et reddit et servit inde v[er]us debet et servit et reddit Salvo iure p[ro]curatoris Et dicitur d[omi]ni de fine et admissa est inde d[omi]ni fidelitas et causa Johanne rebus p[ro]curatoris

1631 Dec 16 THOMAS ATHYE, eldest son and proper heir of JOHN ATHYE Deceased, came to the court and was admitted to a cottage and tenement in Acton, formerly held by the deceased JOHN ATHY. He then made over the same cottage to the use of his mother JOHANNATHY, for the term of her natural life. The said JOHANNATHY was admitted to this cottage, by her attorney, Roger Kerington, who appeared at the court on her behalf. Fine 10s.